

Mary Macleod MP

Mary was elected as the local Member of Parliament in May 2010. Since then Mary has championed local businesses and is a lead activist in getting more women into business and executive boards. She is focused on helping create new jobs and apprenticeships and regularly holds entrepreneurial workshops which are over subscribed.

Mary was previously a senior executive at Andersen Consulting/Accenture and has twenty years' experience working with large multinationals to help transform their business and develop their leaders. Her most recent roles were in investment and retail banking. Mary has also served as Policy Advisor to The Queen and the Royal Household at Buckingham Palace advising on communications and strategic change within the monarchy.

Most recently, Mary was promoted to Parliamentary Private Secretary to the Secretary of State for Culture, Olympics, Media and Sport and Minister for Women and Equalities.

Brian Lynch

Joint Chairman, CCPC

Brian Lynch is a serial entrepreneur currently developing a healthcare business in London. Brian lives locally and believes that local Conservative members need to work together actively to ensure that Mary Macleod is returned to Parliament in 2015 and to secure a majority Conservative government.

"Only a Conservative government can secure much needed reforms in Health, Welfare and Education and give the people a voice on Europe in 2017. The Patrons' Club gives us the opportunity to fight for our MP, galvanise support in our community and work together to build a campaign fund for the 2015 election."

Julian Tanner

Joint Chairman, CCPC

A long time Conservative activist and patron, Julian lives in Chiswick and owns a highly successful global communications business. He considers the Patrons' Club first and foremost as an opportunity to further business connections whilst raising funds to ensure a Conservative Government at the next election.

"Our marginal Constituency is a key Labour target in 2015. I want to do all I can to avoid a return to Labour policies that stifle entrepreneurship and tax success, both personal and business. Our campaign fighting fund is an invaluable tool so I hope you can join us in Keeping Chiswick Conservative!"
